Treasure Chest

Putnam City High School
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

FOREWORD

This is your big
of P.C.H.S.

The 1955 Treasure Chest staff has chosen to dedicate this year's annual to our talented band director, Mr. James D. Walker. He has been directing our Putnam City bands for the past seven years. Under his leadership, the high school band has won many honors, including an invitation to attend a band clinic at Oklahoma City University on January 31 of this year. Only the four best high-school bands in the state are invited to this clinic.

In addition to his duties at Putnam, Mr. Walker finds time in his busy schedule to lead the choir at Epworth Methodist Church. His hobbies, arranging and composing for the organ and the band, also occupy parts of his time.

We, along with the faculty and student body, extend our sincerest congratulations.

This busy man, and we do mean busy, is none other than our own Mr. Kirkland. He has been with us five years and in that time has made many improvements worthwhile to the school and the student body. In deep appreciation we salute you, Superintendent D. D. Kirkland.

During the years Mr. Kirkland has been with us at Putnam, much progress has been made - Enrollment, has grown from a little more than 2,000 to some 3,750 - New rooms have been added to the gradeschool buildings and more are to be added during the next year - A new junior high building has been in use for the past two years and improvements have been planned for the high school building.

As Santa Claus must have elves to help him, so must Mr. Kirkland have a secretary to help him. Mrs. Hubbard seems to have gotten the nod. She has been helping Santa Clause - - er, that is Mr. Kirkland, these past five years and she does a good job, too.

Need an admit to class? Or maybe you want to check out to keep an appointment with your dentist. This is the person to see. She is Mrs. Sedberry, one of the best known and best loved of all our school personal.

Congratulations to you on your graduation, and on being the largest class to graduate from our school. You number 160 people.

Your class contains many students that possess outstanding ability and will go far in whatever endeavor they choose. Their leadership and scholarship abilities have already been well established.

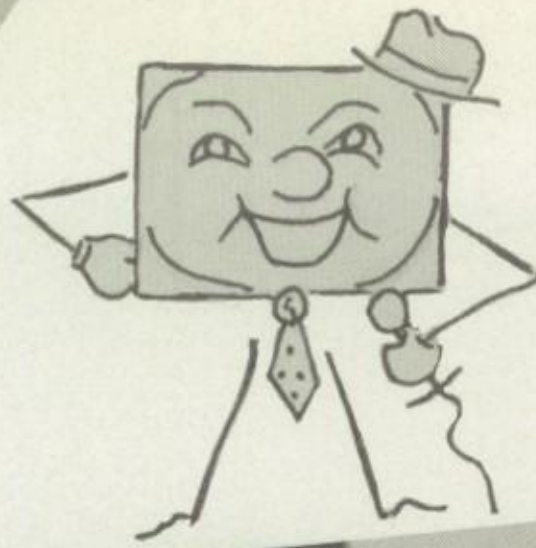

To the class as a whole may I say that it has been a pleasure to work with you during the past three years. Always be proud of your school and remember that loyalty is one of man's finest traits.

Return to visit us when it is convenient, and may your lives be happy and rewarding as a result of service rendered.

*Sincerely
Leo C. Mayfield*

These husky out-of-door men are responsible for the commuting service extended to the greater percentage of students of Putnam City. These bus operators must be willing to brave cold, storm, and flood that their load might reach its destination safely.

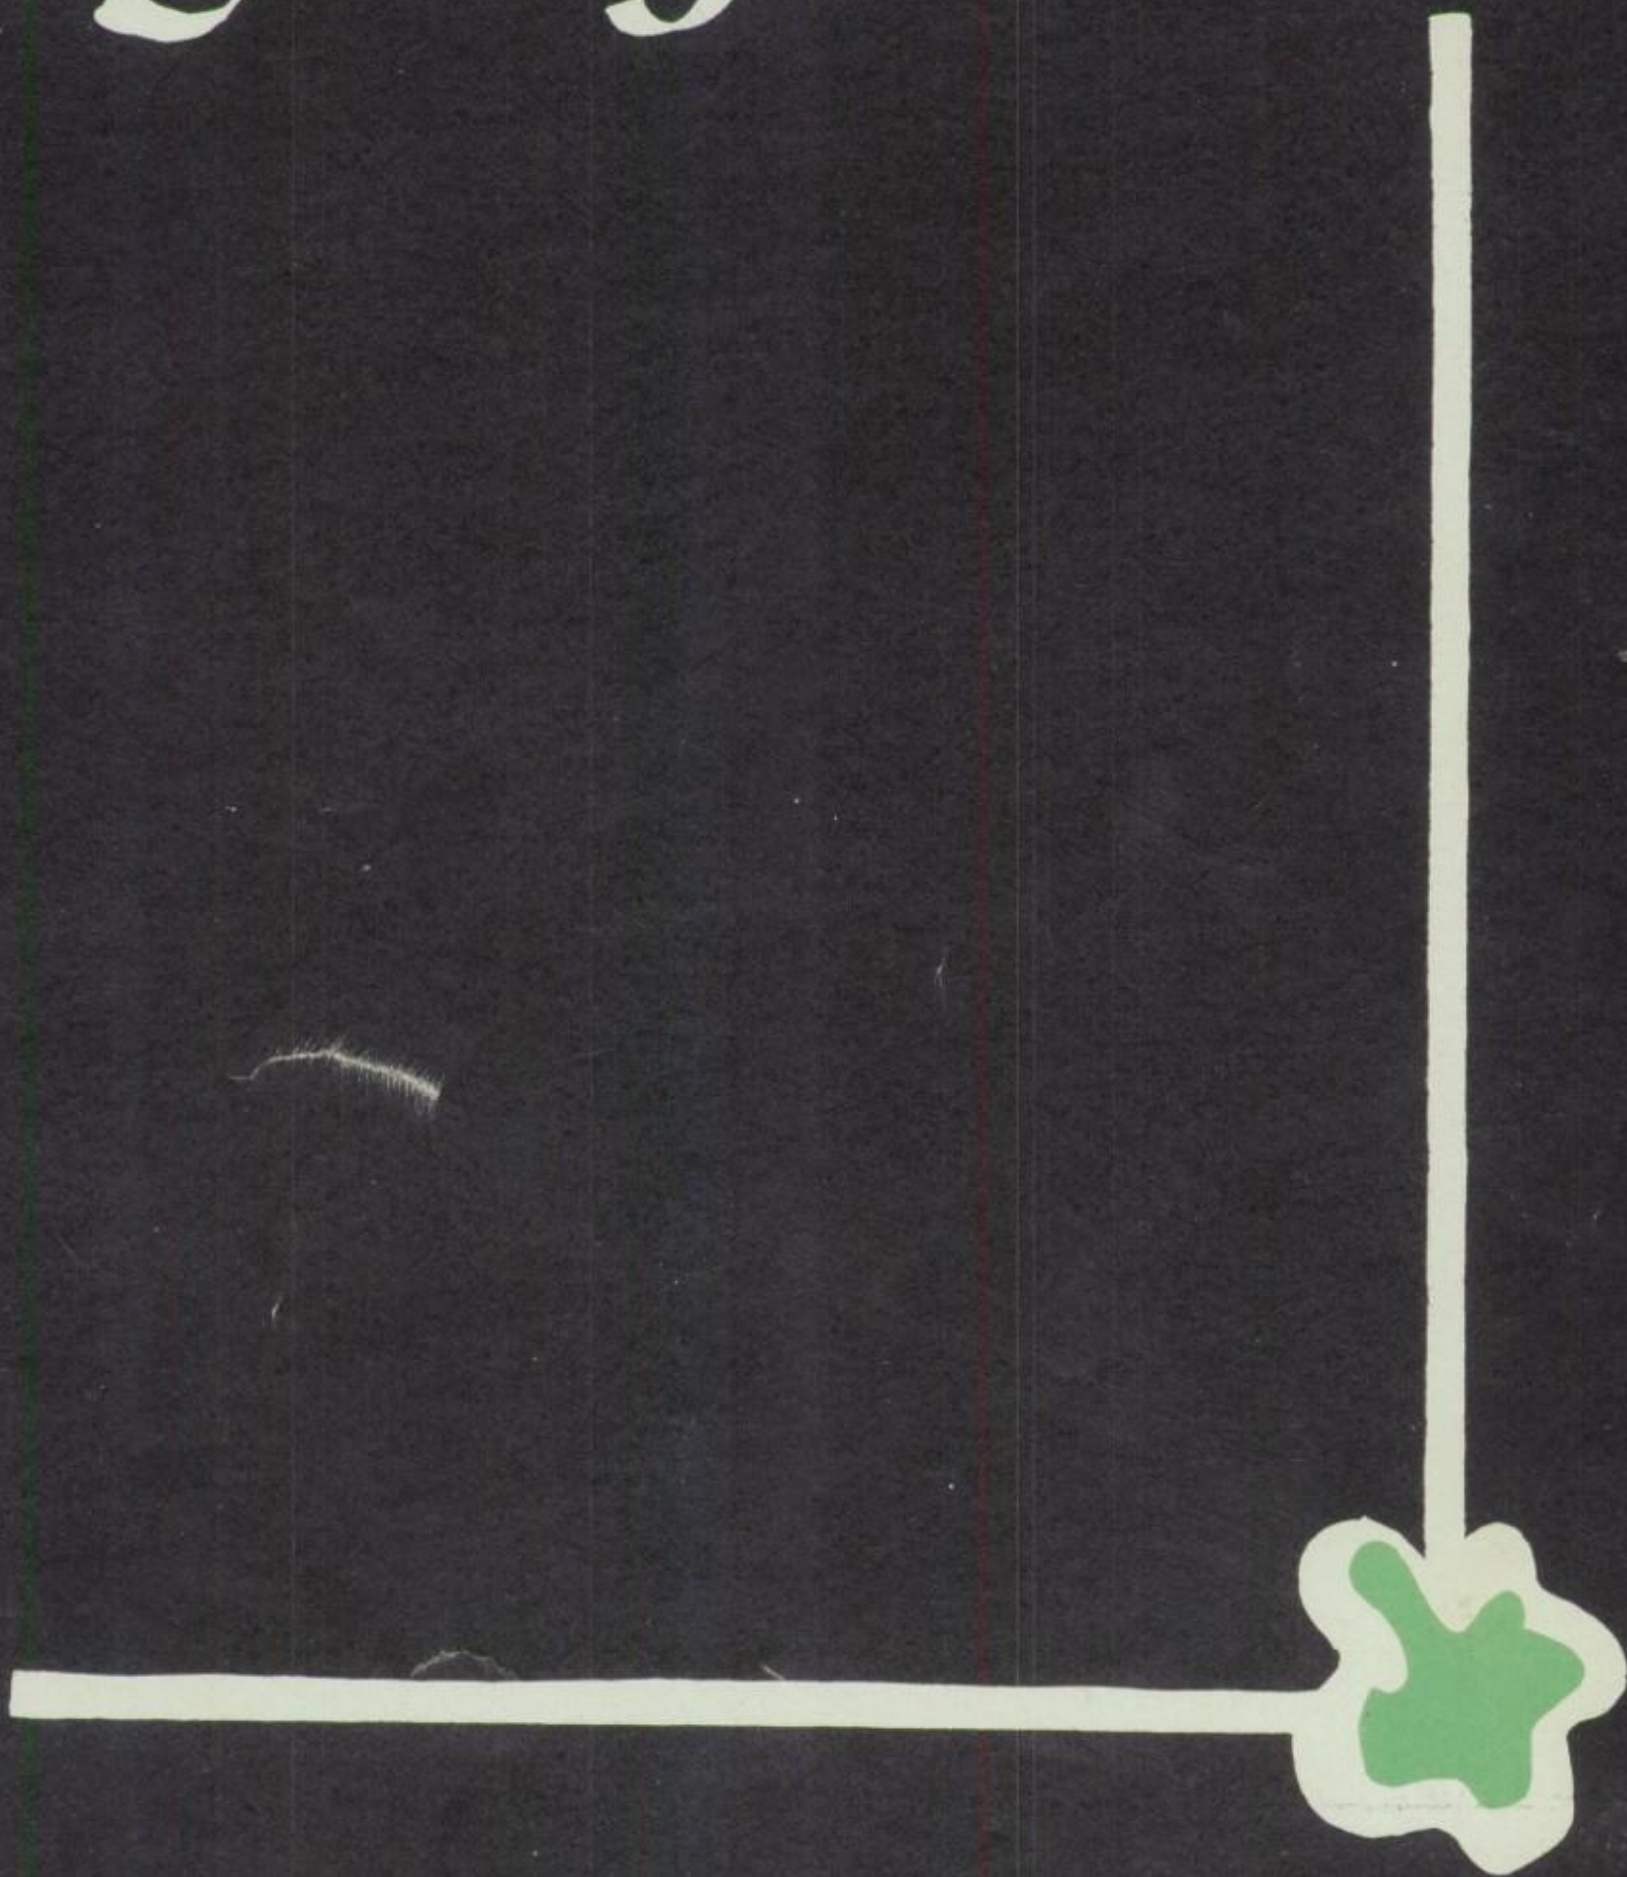

* These men of broom and mop are Mr. James Cross and Mr. John Martin. We are fully appreciative of the fine work they are doing in keeping this school clean, wholesome, and tidy.

These smiling faces belong to the ladies who so ably give of their time and cooking talent in the preparation of our twenty-five cents lunches, which are always attractive, appetizing, and nutritious.

Peeking out from behind the symbols which portray the high ideals and standards of their society are the officers Lorraine Forman, Doris Mounts, Mary Lou Clark, Ronald Coffmen, Buddy Vernon, and Phillip Day.

"We, the honor society members of this, the 1954-1955 school year are proud to belong to one of the most sparsely populated of all the organizations here at old P. C. H. S. " Membership is based solely upon high scholastic achievement and an almost perfect conduct record. Our club has been in existence since 1938 and to its continued growth and achievement we can thank Mrs. Myrtle Mullinax, the sponsor of this organization.

Bennie Williams, Margaret Durham, and Ed McCraw are gathered around the milk machine, one of the projects of our very active Student Council. They have attended work shops on school problems. They sponsor sock hops, after our games. We shall always remember the enjoyment the Student Council has given us.

Youth Wants to Know

The executive part of the Student Council consists of Pres. Bennie William, V. Pres. Edward McCraw, Sec. Margaret Durham, and Tres. Karalyn Pitts. Make it nice. The Sec. and Tres. can keep the Pres. and Veep's lap warm (it's no accident!)

Public Service

People Are Funny

To be a member of this club requires no special ability, interest, or knowledge. The only necessity is twelve years' attendance at good old Putnam City. Maybe you've guessed by now that these people are members of the 12-Year Club.

Activities

In this picture we see the Annual Staff in one of their few still moments. The fellows in the back are members, Fleming, Nelson, McGee, Fowler, and Vernon. The members of the fairer sex are the Misses Yeoman, Shelton, Gilbert, Robbins, Gilbert, and Averitte.

EDITOR
Dean Averitte

Here we are--Yes, we're the gang who assembled an annual which should please the majority of the student body and faculty. Of course, opinions differ even within our small group. On the whole, though, we have done our duty to the best of our ability. We hope you enjoy your annual as much as we enjoyed compiling it for you.

Armed to the teeth with rubber cement, pencils, rulers, and typewriters, the staff tries to meet their deadline.

Working away at writing stories for this week's issue of the Pirate Log is the Journalism Staff.

Meet the Press

The journalism staff of Putnam City ranks among the best. Striving for complete coverage of our school activities, they are forever trying to improve the paper by research and by attending work shops provided by O.I.P.A. and other organizations. They whole-heartedly deserve our thanks and our co-operation.

Pausing for a picture are staff members Ockershauser, Marlowe, Newsom, Brown, Crump, and Taylor. Standing behind them are Norton, Wright, Pitts, McClain, Schneider, and Nisbett.

4-H on Parade

The 4-H Club is engaged in many projects such as land and cattle judging, cooking, sewing, and design. Our 4-H Club has actively been in service at Putnam since our chapter began years ago. In this time they have made much progress in providing an extra-curricular activity for the home making and agriculturally minded students. Their able sponsor is Mr. Shives.

These are the officers of the 4-H club. On their shoulders rests a great deal of responsibility. They are H. Caruthers, J. Markwell, C. Turk, W. Benson, R. Wyat, P. Young, D. Mounts, E. Blakely, E. Hall, S. Wyat.

The officers of the Science Club are Phillip Day, president, Don Duncan, secretary, Doris Mounts, vice-president, and Jim Bleakley, treasurer.

Industry on Parade

The Science Club is a very active organization. They meet the first, second, and third weeks of every six weeks. Each member turns in a project at the end of each semester. Another requirement is to have a "B" average and have two years of science. They co-sponsor the publication of our student directory and engage in many other activities. They are ably sponsored by Mrs. Myrtle Mullinax.

The scientific minded students of Putnam City High School are (around the table) Phillip Day, Doris Mounts, Don Duncan, Jim Bleakley, Jan Shook, and Wendell Gadd. Standing behind them are, Bob McGee, Clarence Druneller, Kent Smith, T. J. Johnson, Joe Turner, Karl Corder, Gano Dick, Walter Coker, Frank Chiles, and Clayton Nichols.

The big bosses of the Commercial Club are: J. Miller, B. Walker, M. Rodkey, L. Forman, and P. Brown.

The Big Picture

The Projection Club is a very active organization. When a group wants a little visual education they call for them. They learn to use and take care of the equipment. Thanks boys! The members are D. The Girls Chorus is a part of our large choral groups. They gave several examples of their talent throughout the year in assemblies. Mainly the Christmas Assembly, which was very beautiful and colorful.

Name That Tune

This is the Girls Octet. They also are a part of our large musical department. They help in many assemblies and enter the vocal contests.

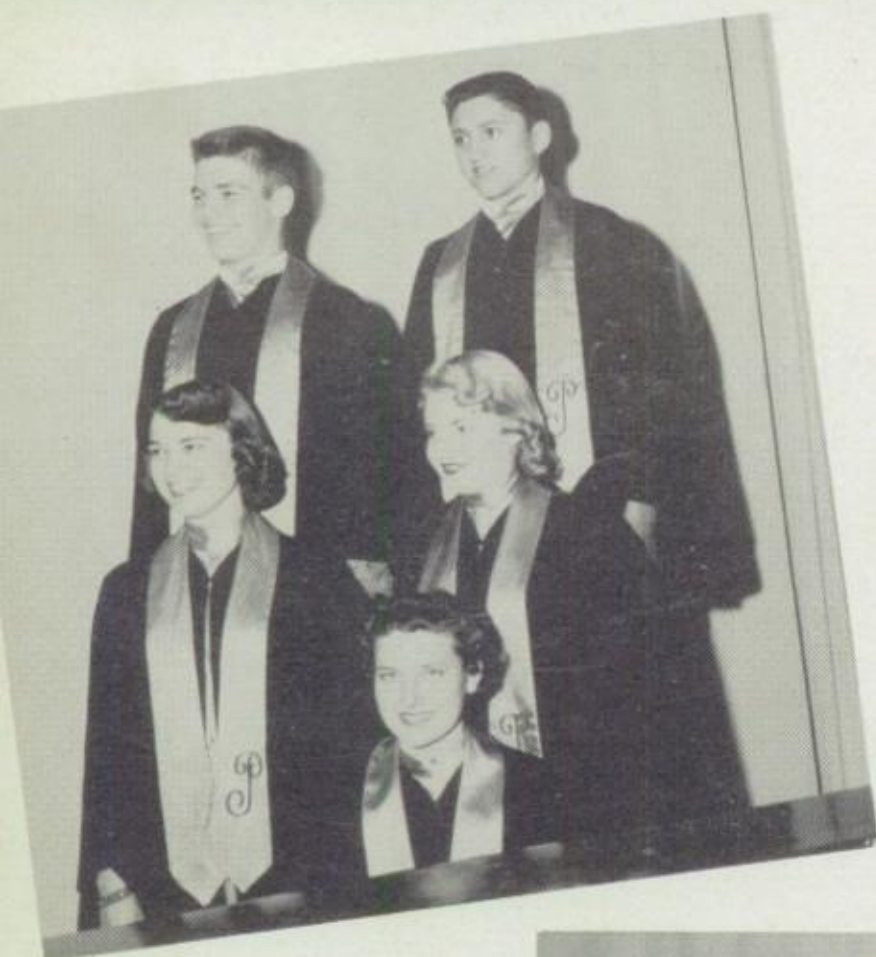

Here we find the Girl's Trio. Dean Averitte, Mary Southard, and Carol Robbins.

The accompanists for the musical ensembles are L. Forman, L. Merriot, K. Hatchett, and H. Caruthers.

This group is our boy's quartet, P. Keeling, B. Campbell, R. Stiverson, H. Fulenwider.

Voice of Firestone

The mixed quartet members are B. Risinger, D. Watson, J. Leonard, and S. Yeoman.

The boys chorus is another one of our excellent choral groups which provides many beautiful and interesting assemblies and attain high ratings in the choral contests.

There little ladies that you see prancing in front of our band. They are V. Self, M. Shelton, and S. Holt.

The big winds of the band are librarian D. DeHart, Student director B. Beamer, Secretary D. Mounts, President T. J. Johnson, Vice-President B. Whorton, and Librarian M. Clark. Man what breezes!

Class Prophecy

This is Edward R. Burrow of "You Also Are There Likewise" bringing you on the spot coverage of the Alumni Party of the Class of '55 on this, their 25th anniversary. Taking place in newly erected Pirate Hall this class reunion promises to bring forth many of the prominent individuals of the world today.

Among the first to arrive is nationally known comedian Jacky Adams and his partners in humor, Frank "Funny Boy" Chiles and Joann "Jocular" Jones. Arriving by dog sled from the Arctic is ice salesman, Wendell Gadd, with his sidekick, Jimmy George, frozen toothpick salesman.

Well, Well! It looks like the new Marilyn Monroe, Mary Lou Clark, along with her bodyguards, Bill (the Wheel) Van Dorn and Roxie (Marciano) Marlowe, has broken away from Hollywood long enough to attend.

Ho! I see a group of distinguished educators approaching! Among them are Ronald Coffman, professor of German at Oxford; Edwin Blackly, who stopped by on his World Tour of lecturing; Jimmy Cotham, famous exponent of the newly revived art of fencing; and last, but not least, Forrest McCoy, successor to Einstein.

Z-O-O-M! What was that? Why, it's Eddie Easlon and Glen Woods who have combined their automotive knowledge so that tonight they are able to arrive in their new "Hot Shot Ten"

The party is already getting under way, so what say we go in and see how things are "clickin"?

Over in the corner we see chess champion, Larry King, engaged in a friendly game with the challenger to his crown, Jim Bleakley. And what's a game without kibitzers? So there are Gene Fern and Gene Weaver, financial executives of the King Corporation looking on.

What's all the excitement? Uh-huh! Seems as if Channel swimmer Dayle Fleharty has gotten a cramp in his big toe while swimming to the party via way of the Canadian River (spring floods you know), so Pat Stone, America's answer to Florence Nightingale, is trying to rescue him from pain. Speaking of rescues, Joe Turner and Danny Absher were rescued from outer space where their ship ran out of two-for-a-nickel skyrockets. Jim "Buzz" Corley, commander-in-chief of the Space Patrol, is accredited as the rescuer. This feat was covered by Jack Birge and Sue Strealy, star reporters for the Podunk Journal.

UH-OH! It looks like trouble. In the center of the room is the world famous psychiatrist Dr. Wendell Benson, using all of knowledge convincing Deanna Hickey to come down from the chandelier.

A group of girls are having a bull session so let's see if we can hear what's going on. Jo Ann Leonard, Margaret Durham, and Sylvia Yeoman are in a huddle comparing the old posters left over from the Annual Queen Campaign of '55. Those two gossip editors of the "Atlantic Monthly", Carol Albee, and Dean Averitte, are trying to get the facts from Delores Huckaby Taylor about her winning of the Bathing Beauty contest, (judged by Warr Acres Mayor, Don Taylor, of course).

Over on one side is Buddy Vernon, trying to complete a hurried sketch of Delores for Esquire Calenders. That boy sure has gone places with his artistic ability. Matrons of the Lonely Hearts' Club, Melva Crump and Phyllis Brown, are here tonight with their dates - oops, wrong graduating class! Lady wrestler Margaret Gilpin and her tag team partner, Kristin Ockerhauser, are talking over their last night's match with their managers, Patty Dixon and Verna McCoy.

Yes, sir! The cream of society is here tonight. For example we have La Rita Dawson and her pink poodle; Ronnie Singley, Harvard graduate and professor; Richard Teas, and his slightly used joke book; Robert Nicklas, medical surgeon, who has finally found his place in life; and Donna Bryan and Sondra Emmons (Rexford), who are now sole owners of the T. G. & Y. Company (pretty good business, we hear). Oh! We mustn't forget Patty Neatherlin and her hobby of collecting Bethany Letter jackets. Ed McCraw and Shirley McGuffin made it tonight, wearing their new gold plated going steady cufflinks and they sure make a cute couple.

Jim Jackson and Stanley Abel have standardized the English language by compiling a dictionary consisting of 31 basic words. Is that right, fellows? Ugh!! Prominent personalities of the medical world are here: Olean Lemley (Limby), famous tree surgeon, is conversing with Bobby Morton, osteopath, as to whether Johnny Thorne, dietician suffering from malnutrition, should be operated on.

Dentist Jerry Garrouette has gotten stock car racer Gary Wilmuth down, trying to remove a bad bicuspid or two, much to Gary's disappointment. That reminds me that after many years of bitter disappointment George Keyser's application for janitorial duties at the White House has finally been accepted, largely through the influence of Senator Bill "Foghorn" Wharton of Oklahoma.

Two old PC 4H Club members, Don Renbarger and Phillip Young, have combined their agricultur el know-how for the purpose of establishing a new college, Youngbarger A&M. Among the first to graduate from this college were: Bill Norman, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, Eleanor Hall, woman land judging expert; Doris Mounts, food economist and successor to Sybil Johnson, and just plain "Farmer Jones", Ralph Taylor.

Danny Jolliff has gotten the girls in a daze over by the piano, showing off his homegrown Liberace smiles, and man! they're the most! That stage team of Glenda Mullen and Shirley Newsome seem to have their knuckles bandaged. Could it be from knocking on theatrical agent Robert Penn's door trying to get a part in Vernon McCord's latest play, "Tobacco Juice Road"?

We hear from the grapevine that Putnam City's old stomping grounds have changed quite a bit and some of the Ex-Putnamites here tonight are now employed at the High School. Bob Estlinbaum is now the principal of old PC, and members of the faculty are friendly Marilyn Norton, art teacher; Tom Campbell, girls' P.E. instructor; Thurman Miller, Putnam's new auto-mechanics "coach", and Janelle Miller, one time office worker, is now the school secretary.

Besides these distinguished personalities we also have with us tonight Jim (Oral) Wright and Ray Stiverson, the traveling Evangelists, you've heard so much about lately; and Carol Robbins and Carolyn Shidler, members of a tumbling team for Robert Royal, head of the "Royal American Shows."

In case you haven't heard, we are fortunate to have the presence of opera stars Bruce Risinger and Clifford Roland. Looking around, we see Matilison Smith and Earl Johnson, those well known play-boy Romeos who are currently beating Ruberosa's time, talking to Margaret Shelton and Charlotte Schneider, co-owners of a horse ranch. Margaret paints 'em and Charlotte breaks 'em, or vice versa.

News! Those two guys are prominent figures in the sports world. They are the old pros themselves, Bill Riddell and Howard Roberson, now playing baseball in the majors - big time! Well, here come David Cooper and James Gillilan, Olympic track stars, arriving late at the party, but soon enough to break their old record. Did you get that time, Mr. Burney?

That Fuller brush man, Doyle Pickard, has gotten his old school buddy and present mouse trap salesman, Dick Red, into a corner trying to make a deal. Wow! Ray and Eugene Judkins, much to the amazement of the onlookers, are demonstrating the "rassling" holds which won them the '55 state championship. Even David Tate and Johnny Hopkins, psychology book salesman who are here tonight with their surplus Coffey-autographed originals, are looking on wide-eyed.

But where are the girls? Looks like something else has captured their attention. They've got poor Darrel Wagner, hair stylist, up against the wall - seems the girls got wind of his latest creation, "The Droople". Trying to rescue him are his assistants, Dean Stone and Sue Proctor. Over at the juke box we see Eddie "Lewis" Neatherlin and his boys, Don "Hotlips" Cobb, Gene "Drumsticks" Moninger, and Cecil "Slip and Slide" Clayton playing the Alma Mater accompanied by a quartet of singers consisting of Bill Brewer, Bill Campbell, Carol Coln and Marie Rodkey.

We switch you to the far corner for an interview with those stamp collecting wall flowers, Danny Buck and Harold Weaver who have given up old talents for this new interest. Can we have a few words from you, Mr. Buck? "Wow, a genuine New Guinea!" Good party tonight, folks, great party. Avon Bathe and Bobby Alexander, manufacturers of toy hot rods are here. Kay Bridwell and Mary Ann Broady, airline stewardesses for Dennis Birtciel, present owner of Braniff Company, have flown in from New York to be with us tonight. Looking around me I see that some of the Putnam girls have finally realized their highest ambition, namely, to get married.

Beatrice Walker sacrificed her modeling job at Macy's in order to become head of a happy home (and thirteen kids, I might add). Housewives Onema Jo Orr, Alverna Kincaid, and Wanda Mace are in a group comparing snapshots of hubby and the kids and discussing in general their married lives. There's a rumor going around that after 25 years of engagement Nadine Perry and Ann Higgins may be getting married.

From the look of anticipation on the face of the crowd I should think that it is just about time for refreshments. Those connoisseurs of fine foods who prepared this big feed are Madena Pendergraft, originator of Mother Moegle's Shrimp Sauce, Joyce Pyle and her snuff flavored hors d'oeuvres and Melvin Menser and his fabulous mince pies. Really de-licious!

UH-OH! Guess what a little envy among the girls has led to! What else but a contest for the best dressed female present! Dorothy Cotton's cotton dress with Spanish "pieces of eight" sewn on as sequins is certainly original, and Jean Guthery's "plunging waistline" is quite different, to say the least; but Kathleen "Closets-full" Wimbray wins in a runaway. Personally, I don't see how anybody could even walk in a tight form fitting "whajamacallit" like that - wow! It is the finished product of the craft of French designers Gene Fowler, who also managed to attend tonight.

June Parrish is "solid mouth" tonight talking about that new movie star, Junior Smith. June says he's "real deep purple," man! Of course, Junior isn't the only Putnamite who made good in Hollywood.

J. R. Adams and Ronald Cammack, financial wizards of Toys for Tots, Incorporated are playing tic-tac-toe on the backs of the old '55 wrestling uniforms.

Carolyn Sue Holt, dance instructor, is trying hard to teach Rubbery Legs Bobby McGee, head executive of the Kerr-McGee Oil Company, the "tip toe tumbo." The two Lombards, Philip and Elvan, the boys who followed in Dad's footsteps to become co-owners of Lombard's Feed, are here making the most of the pinball machine. Lady plumbers Carol Whitfield and Norma Wemple are having a big time bowling. My, doesn't that bald headed man look surprised as the girls reach for his cranium with the mistaken idea that it is a flesh colored bowling ball? Why! It's Bennie Williams, President of the Brick Layers' Society, and he used to have such a nice mop of curly hair. Franky Marler and Donneta Jones are having "many good times" playing hop scotch on our new (finally) basketball court.

I notice that a few more alumni have entered since the party began. Scientific-minded Phil Day and Don Duncan have come tonight wearing their invention, the 3" television set, that can be worn over the eye ball. Bill Beamer, our drum major, has finally returned from college with a major drummer's degree and is he ever givin' the girls a thrill! Sue "Stinky" Stinchcomb and Karen Gragson got starring roles in the revised version of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

This spacious Pirate Hall certainly has an adequate recreation center and some of the alumni are really putting it to good use. Lorraine Forman makes a terrific back ~~hand~~ slam to nose out a opponent Jerry White in the ping pong finals. May we have a few words from you, champ? "It was a good clean, honest match, but I won, anyway." And what do you have to say, Jerry? "Well, you know how it is, Win a few, lose a few, that's life.

Ramona Guthrie and Connie Roberts, secretarial wizards employed by Johnny Long, owner of the Empire State Building, are present. Shirley A. McClung antique collector, is trying to talk Larry Nailon, used car salesman, out of his ol' "'52 Jewel". Housewives Jackie Carter and Aleta Shetley had a hard time finding a baby sitter for their many children, but finally rented a baby buggy from Indian Trader Ida Lou Johnson (who also has an ample supply of chorus robes) and came tonight wheeling their "brood" around.

Jim Van Horn and Charles Partin, financial brokers, appear to be having great fun riding the circular escalator. Those well-to-do bachelors Melyin and Alvin Lawson are here, and at last we can tell them apart. Melvin is bald! (Or is it Alvin?) Arnold Grove, bug collector, is driving the girls mad lowering a spider down their backs from the balcony.

Charles Faison and Lee Penick, tatooists, are having a fight trying to put a heart on the back of Jackie Chatman, lady taxi driver. Skating in from Chicago are members of the Roller Derby team, Francis Cooper, Nora Mae Ritchie, Sherrill Hodgson, and Kay (Brooks) Smith. How athletic!

That appears to be all of the "gang" except - let's face it, there has to be at least one bum among these persons of distinction; but Dale Watson doesn't like to be called a hobo. He considers himself a "traveling man."

It seems our time is up ladies and gentlemen, and we are glad to have brought you this on the spot telecast from Pirate Hall; and now this is your friend, Edward R. Burrow, saying "Goodnight", and leaving you with this one thought, "It's been real, and it could happen to you!"
